DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

DEATH OF HENRY TIMROD.

The brief telegram which announced yesterday morning that Henry Timrod was dead, while it touched the hearts of many lovers of song throughout the land, did not excite that wide-spread and universal grief which might well have attended the loss of a much less gifted man. The world often does not know its great ones, and the recognition of their greatness at last is that tardy recognition which is sculptured on the tomb. To our perception there has not appeared on this continent of America a truer poet than this young Carolinian, whose body has just been laid in the grave. The music of his verse has hardly been heard beyond our Southern borders. The Corpus Poetarum Americanorum contains no line of his; and no acknowledgment of his genius has ever come from the North. In England he is utterly unknown. Yet neither Bryant nor Longfellow, in our judgment, has manifested in like degree with him the true poetic faculty, has gone so near the heart of nature, has struck so skilfully the chords of our own inner being, has wrought his interpretations of the material and moral universe into forms so harmonious or so beautiful. The knack of rhyming, so to speak, was Henry Timrod's only inheritance from his father, who, forty years ago, wrote verses for the Charleston daily papers, with but moderate success, and died a poor man as he had lived a poor poet. But the gift of song, the light, the consecration, and the dream, came to the younger Timrod from God. He did not write for praise; he was a shy, sensitive, shrinking man, who withdrew into himself like the mimosa at the slightest touch; he was always, more or less, an invalid, and was, both from a feeble physique and want of acquaintance with the world, the most incompetent of men in the affairs of life.—But his organization, though imperfect, was not morbid. His heart was always sympathetic, his life was pure, his contemplations exalted, and the purity and elevation of his character were seen in all that he wrote.—He could not help writing. It was not from books nor from culture that he wrote. His muse, like Sir Philip Sidney's, said to him "Look in thy heart and write!" and he obeyed. From the sea and the sky; from nature in her various moods of tenderness and gloom and wrath; from the deep luxuriance of Southern forests and the pomp of Southern summers, he drew his inspirations.

The war for independence gave him at once the incentive and the opportunity for song, and no collection of the War Poetry of the South could be made which should not owe its highest claim and greatest value to his efforts. The Ode written by him during the war for the opening of the Richmond Theatre, will be freshly remembered by our citizens, and it is hardly too much to say of that performance that it is superior to any similar ode that graces the literature of the English language.

It is to be regretted that no complete collection has ever been made of the poems of this gifted young man. For the sake of Southern letters we trust that this omission may now be repaired. The poet is dead, the harp shattered, the strain silenced. But the music survives and will delight generations that are to come after us. Light lie the turf on the dust of the bard!—Rich. Examiner.

We learn from the Dispatch that the exercises of the Republican mass meeting, held in Richmond on Friday night last, were opened by the following prayer by Harris, a colored man. The following extract from the prayer is a piece of the most irreverent mockery that we have ever read:

"Oh, Lord God, bless our enemies—bless President Johnson. We would not even have him sent to hell. Come, oh come, good Lord, and touch his heart, even while I am talking with you to-night. [Amen.] Show him the error of his ways. Have mercy upon our 'Moses.' [Sarcastic. Great laughter and amens.] who, like Esau, has sold his birth right for a morsel of pottage—took us in the wilderness and left us there. Come down upon him, oh Lord, with thy blessing. God bless us in our meeting to night, and help us in what we do. God forbid that we should choose any Conservative that has the spirit of the devil in his heart, and whose feet take hold on hell—God bless our old friend—true and tried—Mr. Hunnicutt, who has stood a great many sorrows, and I think he can stand a great many more. [Laughter.] Bless our judge, Mr. Underwood, who is down here among us, and don't let anything harm a hair of his head."

THE BEAUFORT GRAPE.

Beaufort County has the honor of adding to her unrivalled Mish or Pamlico grape, yet another, a recent discovery, which is certainly unsurpassed as a table grape, and we have little doubt will prove even more valuable as a wine grape. This latter remains to be tested.

About three years since Mr. Jacob Swindell, an enterprising citizen of this county, living in Beaver Dam District, eight miles from town, discovered on a clay ditch bank, in an old field, a very thrifty grape vine.—He transplanted it, giving it careful attention, and has been rewarded with the happiest results. It proves to be an immense bearer, the vine this fall being loaded with fruit. It did well the last year also, and, if we are rightly informed, the fall before.

The clusters are not very large, averaging, usually, only from fifteen to twenty berries, but there are a great many of them, each new shoot averaging from four to six bunches. This berry is large, much larger than the Catawba or Isabella, but not as large as the Scuppernong. Its color is a bright pinkish amber, skin thin and tender, seed few and small, pulp tender and sweet. There is considerable acidity in the outer hull, which is as thin as tissue paper. The flavor of the grape is high, and the aroma powerful and peculiar. It is this latter property which we suppose will make it valuable as a wine grape, should it prove sufficiently juicy.—Washington Conservative.

The New Orleans Times of Tuesday week says: "We were yesterday reliably informed of a case which curiously illustrates the nervous susceptibility of patients in yellow fever. On Saturday night last Mr. F—— was considered by his physician as out of all danger. At a late hour in the night a Gulf steamer announced her arrival by firing a gun, and the report gave the patient a nervous shock which caused him to expire in the course of five minutes. 'That,' said he, 'is my death shock.' The startling utterance proved prophetic. He turned over and died forthwith.

VALUE OF PAPER DOLLARS.—The following calculation will be found convenient for those who deal occasionally in gold, and will be found valuable for reference:

When gold is quoted at $1.10, a paper dollar is worth 91 cents nearly.
When gold is quoted at $1.15, a paper dollar is worth 87 cents nearly.
When gold is quoted at $1.20, a paper dollar is worth 83 cents.
When gold is quoted at $1.25, a paper dollar is worth 80 cents.
When gold is quoted at $1.30, a paper dollar is worth 77 cents.
When gold is quoted at $1.35, a paper dollar is worth 74 cents.
When gold is quoted at $1.45, a paper dollar is worth 69 cents nearly.
When gold is quoted at $1.50, a paper dollar is worth 66⅔ cents.

BANKRUPTCY.—Up to Saturday afternoon two hundred and fifty petitions in bankruptcy from persons residing in various portions of the State had been filed with the Register in this city.—Rich. Whig, 7th.

THE NORTH AMERICA
LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY.
New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.
This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.
No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.
Thirty days' of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.
No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.
No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.
Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.
Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.
Our dividend, January 1st, 1866, was 45 per cent.
Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.
Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.
All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.
The per centage of premium receipts in 1863, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.
Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.
For insurance in this Company apply to
F. H. CAMERON,
Agent for State of North Carolina, Wilmington.
or SEATON GALES,
July 4-280. Agent for Raleigh.

"ÆTNA"
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.
An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.
This plan gives in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

THE ELECTIONS.

Our telegraphic dispatches are of such a character, this morning, as to render it probable that the Democrats and Conservatives have carried the great State of Pennsylvania by a decided majority, and to leave no doubt that, though the Republican candidate for Governor, in Ohio, may be elected by about 1,000 votes or so, the Democrats have still a majority in both branches of its Legislature,—thereby defeating the re-election of Benj. Wade to the United States Senate. The combined Radical majority in the two States, one year ago, was about 60,000. Never in the history of the government before was there such a tremendous revolution of public opinion.

Next month, New York will echo back the mighty voice of Pennsylvania and Ohio in tones of thunder!

THE MODERATE REPUBLICAN ADDRESS.

Our neighbor, the Progress, has obtained, by hook or by crook, the forthcoming address of the moderate Republicans of this State to the people of North Carolina. We publish it, as a matter of history, without attaching any value to it, until it is signed by responsible parties.

The address will hardly meet public expectation, either in style or drift, though all will perhaps admire its moderation and good temper. It errs in its statements of fact, as to the true causes which led to the adoption of the Congressional programme, and is too tame in its condemnation of those objectionable features of Radical hostility to the Southern people, which are attempted to be forced upon the South, over and above the positive requirements of the Reconstruction Acts. Congress demands of the Southern States, in the formation of their new Constitutions, first, that they shall be made conformable to the Constitution of the United States in all respects, and secondly, that the new Constitutions shall admit to the right of suffrage such persons and classes as are allowed to vote for the Convention. It will be seen, therefore, that the Reconstruction Acts, while they insist upon negro suffrage, do not require that the rights of office or of sitting on juries shall be co-extensive with the right to vote, nor will the strongest advocate for the Howard amendment contend that it contains either of these requisitions, but that simple equality and justice shall be accorded to all men alike, without regard to color, in all matters essential to freedom.

Confiscation and continued or further disabilities to Southern whites are simple threats of the ultra men of the party, while the requisitions to allow negroes to occupy first-class seats in railroad coaches, to allow negroes to sit in a Convention to form a new Constitution, to hold office or sit on juries, without regard to the uniform qualifications always heretofore demanded, are the enactments of the District Commanders themselves, and are not at all required by the Reconstruction Acts. They may be required by ultra-Radicals or moderate Republicans, so far as we know, but we challenge any one to show that any of them are demanded by the Reconstruction Acts themselves, from first to last.

Now, the Conservative men of North Carolina, in order to show their patriotism and loyalty even to the Congress, have very generally, while protesting against the wisdom, justice or constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts, agreed to submit to them as the law of the land, until rescinded or declared unconstitutional by proper authority, in order to secure reconstruction, harmony and peace. But they have solemnly protested against the incorporation into the Constitution of the State of anything more Radical than the Reconstruction Acts themselves required.

The address is too non-committal on these points, coming from professed moderate Republicans, and, so far, must be unsatisfactory to their friends. It is very gingerly worded, so as to produce no violent collision with the ultra Radicals, while its severest censures seem to be reserved for their Yankee coadjutors, who, though recently coming into the State, manifest an anxiety to hold the chief places in the Synagogue and the best offices for themselves, through their superior influence over the negro population.

These strictures upon the address are penned in no captious spirit. They are such as the occasion calls for, in order that the people may be fully informed, and may act with proper discretion. The correctness of our position, that while we should vote for sound-hearted, good men, who are known to be moderate Republicans, in preference to Radicals, yet that the true Conservative men of the State should avoid all entangling alliances in a party sense with either wing of the Republican party, we think, is now fully demonstrated. We warn all Conservatives to be up and doing—to be guided by no sinister or partizan purpose, but to look wholly to the true interests of the State and of our people, as well as to our early restoration to peace and harmony with all sections of the Republic. Where you can elect, to the Convention, good and true men, who are sound Conservatives, be sure to do so in every instance. But where the contest is at all doubtful, be sure to vote for sound-hearted, moderate Republicans, to defeat a Radical!

"Two citizens of New York are to be prosecuted for having swindled the State out of three hundred thousand dollars in the matter of negro enlistments. The recruits, four hundred in number, were to have received six hundred dollars each as State bounty, and forty dollars each as county bounty.—They never got a cent of the money. The parties implicated, by means of forged vouchers and false representations, collected the whole amount and pocketed it."

We find the foregoing in the New York papers. It discloses the "sharp practice" of which the negro was made the dupe and victim during the war. Something of the same sort is still going on, in these "piping times of peace," so-called.

The "Plan of Organization," of which Dr. Powell, of Washington City, (Fourth Ward,) is the daddy, and which was adopted by the late Jacobin Convention, in this City, was worthy of these patriotic "citizens of New York." Its object is to exclude the negroes from offices that pay, while it binds them, by the most formal exactions, to support the nominees of the party. Its first practical effect is seen in Richmond county, where the inevitable and redoubtable Doctor Powell (Washington City, Fourth Ward, aforesaid,) himself obtained the nomination for the Convention, notwithstanding there is a decided majority of blacks in the county. Its next practical operation is exhibited in Craven, where, although the proportion of black to white Radicals is at least ten to one, and probably greater, only one negro (C. D. Peirson, a colored barber,) has been nominated for the Convention, and two whites, (Col. Heaton and W. H. S. Sweat,) both of whom are Northern men.—The one negro would not have been allowed by the white Radical wire workers, but that it was necessary to give Cerberus a little sop.

In this county, (Wake,) the number of black Radicals is more than ten times as great as the number of the white brethren of the same persuasion; and yet if the former are allowed one candidate, it will be as much as we expect.

If the colored people will scrutinize the matter closely, they will see how this state of things is brought about. An inspection of the proceedings of all the Radical primary meetings will show that a white Chairman, who is doubtless in the secret and fully posted, is appointed, upon whom, generally, devolves the duty of designating delegates to the County nominating Conventions. In every instance, it will be further perceived, however largely the blacks may out-number the whites in a County, this Chairman appoints, as delegates, two whites to one negro,—thereby placing in the hands of the former the absolute control over nominations; while the "Plan of Organization" binds the deluded blacks to support the nominees! This is the way in which the colored people are fooled and cheated by their disinterested friends.

Now, if there was any sincerity in this; if these Radical managers would come out candidly and speak the truth,—telling their black brethren that they are not yet qualified, by education, nature, habits or experience, for positions of official responsibility, we should have nothing to say. But, in order to use them, for their own mercenary and unholy purposes, they affect to believe that they are the equal of the white men, and twice as loyal as most of them; and yet when the "bounty" is to be paid, it somehow finds its way into their own pockets!

One would suppose that these things would open the eyes of even the most credulous and ignorant. A blind man ought to see through such hypocrisy and duplicity. If any respectable, sensible colored man can look at such treatment, and continue to be deceived, he deserves to be, and to suffer the consequences. This hollow-heartedness has just reached its culmination in Ohio, where, with a Radical majority, last year, of 42,000, suffrage has been refused the few, scattering blacks in that State, by upwards of 50,000 votes!

GERRIT SMITH, the noted adolitionist, in a recent letter said:

"Great is my fear that this commanding of too much for the blacks, as conditions of 'reconstruction' and terms of peace between the North and the South, will not only seriously affect their spirit and character, but will in the end leave them in possession of less rights, less properly, less advantages than would have been cheerfully conceded to more moderate demands for them."

This prophecy is in a fair way of speedy fulfilment. The great and amazing reaction in Maine, Connecticut, California, Ohio, Pennsylvaina and Indiana is exclusively attributable to the Reconstruction policy of Congress. It is directly traceable to the action of that body in forcing negro suffrage upon the people of the South, and to the apprehension of an attempt to force it as well upon the States of the North.—One of the phases of the re-action is that of violent hostility to the negro. "Nojoe"—a work of which we have expressed our severest reprobation—was written to gratify this rapidly increasing prejudice and animosity, and it has been greedily read by thousands at the North, where one man has chosen to read it at the South.

So far as the great counter-revolution indicates hostility to the negro, as a man, and to his enjoyment of all civil privileges that are proper and right in his new relations, we do not rejoice at it. But as a crushing rebuke to ultra-Radicalism, and as an evidence of the reviving spirit of Constitutional liberty, we hail it as a happy and hopeful harbinger of better and purer days. As we have repeatedly said, the day will come when the colored race will recognize the white men of the South as their best friends. It may be that they will be impotent, then, however, to help them as their inclinations would prompt.

—— The Conservatives of Halifax County will meet in Convention, in the town of Halifax, on Saturday, 19th inst., for the purpose of selecting candidates to represent that County in the State Convention, which is to frame a new Constitution.

—— The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina will hold its thirty-seventh session in Goldsboro', on Wednesday before the 3rd. Sunday in October.

The Moderate Republicans.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA:

The apparent purposes and the action of the late Convention, assembled in the City of Raleigh, on the 4th. day of September, having met the open disapprobation of many Republicans in the State, and raised serious apprehensions of discord in the party, the undersigned beg the indulgence of their fellow-citizens in submitting the following views, and exhorting all truly loyal and Union men to harmony and unity of action, regardless of the temporary and accidental prevalence of injustice and unfortunate counsels.

The Union Republican party of the nation must be relied upon to settle our present troubles and to restore the lately insurgent states to complete harmony with the general government; and to render such restoration permanent,—to prevent a speedy renewal of recent strife, and to guarantee the future safety and integrity of the Union, that party has assumed, as a basis of reconstruction, certain fundamental principles, the establishment of which, as the popular sentiment of the voting masses in the lately rebellious States, is held as a condition precedent to their being admitted to the exercise of political powers in the nation.

It must be borne in mind that these States are to be restored not merely to being governed themselves, but to the exercise of equal powers in governing the whole country. They rebelled against the Union, and waged a war for the establishment of certain principles of their own until they were subdued by those in whose government they now seek to be made again participators and equals. Before being raised from the condition of the vanquished and restored to the rights and powers of governors, it is not unreasonable that they be required to renounce the principles for which they waged the unsuccessful war, and accept such as are now prescribed as essential to the general peace and welfare.

But, inasmuch as the people themselves, and not the States, are the real repository of political power, it is required that they give evidence of a popular renunciation and acceptance, in good faith, and not merely a temporary acquiescence from expediency, in order to recover the power to renew the late strife and revive a lost cause. Reconstruction has been delayed only because of their failure, so far, to manifest such a disposition, and for the establishment among them of a prevailing sentiment in accordance therewith. The preparatory policy of Congress has been conducted step by step with this view. Its first step was to wait for a voluntary manifestation in the elections ordered by the President. But adverse counsels having prevailed in those elections, the "constitutional amendment" was proposed for their voluntary acceptance, by which certain principles were to be incorporated in the Constitution itself, and a sufficient number of individual citizens supposed to entertain hostile purposes were to be excluded from the exercise of political powers, to give to the well disposed the ascendancy and control in public affairs,—This proposition was rejected by such majorities and in such a spirit that it was considered to have become necessary to create a new political element in the rebellious States by conferring the elective franchise upon the colored population, and to establish military governments for the maintenance of obedience and order while the spirit and disposition of our people were being again tested. In this condition of affairs we are now called upon to act.

The principles sought to be established upon the sound basis of popular sentiment, as preliminary to reconstruction, may be fully summed up in two propositions, viz:

1. A faithful and willing adherence to and support of the Union and of the government of the United States and a quiet submission to its authority under the constitution

2. Civil and political equality among all citizens, irrespective of race or color, and the protection of white and colored alike in all the rights, privileges and immunities of citizenship.

These are the principles of the UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY, and are the only test of a true, national republican. Our restoration to the rights and powers appertaining to a recognized State in the Union, awaits and is dependent on the establishment of these principles as the prevailing sentiment of the people.

The government has refrained from executions for treason, from banishments and from confiscation. It does not now suspend any threats over us; but appeals to a voluntary sense of returning loyalty and duty.—The masses of our people, who have been so long excited and misled, seem now disposed to yield to reason and justice. It is the duty, and should be the purpose of every true republican in the state to encourage and advance this disposition of the people, not only by inculcating the great principles of "Union and equality," but by removing every obstacle to its progress. Our adversaries have retarded it in North Carolina, not so much by reason and argument, as by appeals to sectional prejudices and misrepresentations of the purposes and designs of the republican party upon distinct and collateral points.

They have charged that party with the design, 1st. To confiscate the lands of those compromised in the rebellion to be parceled out among the colored citizens; 2. To perpetuate the disfranchisement of the whites from the ballot-box, while the whole of the colored men are enfranchised, and thus secure the political supremacy of the colored race in the Southern States; 3d. To continue the official disabilities now imposed on native citizens of the State, and thus, in effect, place our government in the hands of strangers who have lately settled among us for the purpose of becoming our rulers. These unjust charges have had much effect upon the uninformed masses of the people and have raised up apprehensions and hesitancy even among the most steadfast friends of the Union. The fear exists that the colored vote can be controlled against all native citizens in favor of those who can parade military services in destroying slavery, and having themselves no interest to be endangered by confiscation, may, the more easily, delude the illiterate and credulous with vain hopes of having the lands of their neighbors parceled out among them. Such appeals to the colored population would inevitably produce alienation and prejudice between the races, fatal to the establishment of a safe and wholesome public sentiment, and dangerous to the peace and good order of society.

That these apprehensions might be quieted by having the position of the party upon these and other points distinctly and unequivocally set forth and promulgated in North Carolina, it was deemed expedient and proper that a Convention of republicans should be called to meet in the city of Raleigh, on the 4th. day of September, 1867.—The Convention was accordingly assembled, but its action was not such as was hoped and expected. It was, confessedly, unfortunate that after the courtesy shown to recent settlers from the North, by making a prominent politician from the State of Ohio, (Col. Heaton,) the temporary chairman of the Convention, they should have demanded, and, by appeals to the colored delegates on the ground of military services, secured the rejection of one of the most prominent and worthy of the native Unionists of the State, (Gen. Dockery,) and have placed in his stead, as permanent President, a stranger from the State of New Hampshire, (Gen. J. C. Abbott,) a gentleman previously unheard of by the masses of our people, or known only as an officer from the federal army who had recently located near Wilmington in this State. It is still more to be regretted that the colored speakers from Wilmington and its vicinity, seconded by a gentleman from New York (Col. Peck,) in advocating the election of Gen. Abbott, should have used language suggestive of purposes calculated to increase previously existing apprehensions. They paraded the military prestige of their candidate in fighting against slavery, while they reproached the native citizens of the State with struggling to perpetuate it, and charged Southern Union men with acting either from cowardice or from a hope to save their slave property by terminating the war short of emancipation. The effect of these appeals upon the colored delegates was manifested by the excitement and enthusiasm with which they rejected the counsels of the more considerate of their own race, and of one officer, lately in the federal service, (Gen. Ladin,) who met only reproach and insult for raising his voice in advocacy of moderation and prudence.

The election of Gen. Abbott, as permanent President of a North Carolina Convention, was followed by the election of four Secretaries, two of whom were strangers lately located among us and two colored men. It could hardly be expected that the Congress of the United States would be likely to view the action of a Convention so controlled, as expressive of the true sentiments of this State, or the success of a party under it as affording sufficient evidence of the temper and spirit of our people, to justify the restoration of the State to its rights and powers in the general government.

But an effort was, nevertheless, made to quiet the public mind by committing the party in this State, distinctly and authoritatively, upon three points, to wit: 1st. Against the purpose or desire of confiscating private property for political offences in the present condition of affairs; 2. In favor of providing in the State Convention for the extension of the elective franchise to every white and colored man alike; 3. In favor of the removal of disabilities from true and loyal citizens within such limits as Congress may deem safe and prudent in this State. The "committee on platform and resolutions," after full and prolonged deliberation, reported to the Convention three resolutions embodying these sentiments, and recommending their passage.—But these resolutions were met by a repetition of excited and immoderate discussion, and voted down. It was unfortunate, that the motion upon which the first of the resolutions was rejected, was made, not by any native citizen of the State, white or colored, but by a prominent politician from the State of Ohio, (Col. Heaton.) The other two were rejected on the motion of a gentleman from New York, (Col. Peck,) now a resident in Wilmington. On motion of a native of the State, by birth, but who now is, and has been for some thirty years a resident of the city of Washington, a plan of party organization was adopted, so repugnant in its details to the customs and usages of our people, and so effective in the hands of any who might seek to place our government in the hands of strangers by controlling the public vote, that it cannot fail to excite additional alarm and disgust.

Northern gentlemen should be encouraged to settle among us by extending to them every courtesy and kindness, and by discountenancing the revival of prejudices, which should never have existed, and ought now to be forgotten and buried forever.—But while our people are willing for recent settlers among us to participate in our public affairs, it is not natural that they should view with favor, the appearance, even, of an effort to place their government entirely in the hands of strangers, to the exclusion of those whose information, interests and experience so much better fit them to understand and manage the manifold interests and exigencies connected with our present unfortunate condition. It must appear to the people unkind and unjust to take advantage of their helpless condition, by exciting appeals and delusive promises to the most ignorant, and most unsuspecting and docile of our population, and thus raise up enmity and antagonism among us, ruinous to the colored man, for whose rights and welfare every good citizen is now solicitous, and destructive of the efforts of those who are laboring to prepare the State for a return to the Union by bringing the popular mind in cordial unity with the great principles of the republican party.

It cannot be expected that a Convention in this State apparently controlled by such influences and distinguished by such action can command the approbation and confidence of the people of North Carolina.—But it is advised and hoped that no true republican will abandon the party or abate his zeal in support of its principles, because of the temporary and accidental ascendancy of ill advised and improper counsels, in a single assemblage. Rather let our adherence to and support of the republican party be increased and strengthened, that, by the triumph of its policy, we may see the Union reconstructed and confiscation thereby rendered impossible—the "constitutional amendment" adopted and universal suffrage under it the fixed law of the land—and the official disabilities removed from every one who is true to the Union and who discountenances all efforts to keep alive animosities and prejudices threatening to the peace and integrity of the nation.

Let the people meet in their respective counties and districts, by their own spontaneous action, and put forward their own candidates—men true to the Union and trustworthy as republicans—and, by supporting such, manifest to the nation that in North Carolina there exists such a prevailing sentiment of nationality and such voluntary obedience to the laws of the land, that our restoration to rights and powers in the government, so far from being dangerous to the peace and welfare of the republic, will add strength to the great edifice of UNION, LIBERTY AND EQUALITY.

By requiring each candidate to announce unequivocally his opposition to confiscation and his desire for the admission of every white and colored man alike to the ballot box, the people may prevent the ignorant and unsuspecting colored citizens from being decieved, by vain promises of land donations, into an attitude of hostility and conflict with his white neighbors, no less ruinous to himself than detrimental to the peace and prosperity of the State. After a satisfactory State Constitution shall have been framed, should any true, Union men, under official disability, be elected to any position, Congress will, doubtless, remove such disability in each case, in deference to the wishes of a true and loyal constituency, and thus protect the people against a transfer of their government to the hands of strangers.

However much the conduct and spirit of the late Convention may be deplored, and however much it may have increased previously existing apprehensions, it is yet in the hands of the people to protect themselves at the ballot box, and to secure a restoration of their rights, and of prosperity and peace, by co operating with the Union Republican party of the nation in the support of such measures and the enforcement of such laws as have been adopted for the security and preservation of the Union.

In this work the interest of the white and the colored citizen is identical. Let there be no ill-feeling nor antagonism betwern them. But let each, turning a deaf ear to the appeals of disunion agitators and designing office-hunters, maintain firmly the constitution and laws of his country, and, to the extent of his ability, labor to advance the great principles of justice, liberty and equality.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN ONSLOW.

At a meeting of the citizens of the county of Onslow, held at the Court House in Jacksonville, on the 7th. inst., on motion of Jno. W. Shackelford, Franklin Thompson was appointed Chairman, and, on motion of A. C. Huggins, A. J. Johnston was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman appointed Jno. W. Shackelford, E. W. Murrill, A. C. Huggins, C. Stevens and Edgar W. Ward, to draft resolutions expressive of the object of the meeting, which was to recommend suitable persons to represent Onslow county in a General Convention, to meet in Raleigh, on the 16th. of October.

The Committee retired, and, after a short absence, returned, and, through their Chairman, A. C. Huggins, made the following report:

Resolved, That we approve of the call of the National Constitutional men to hold a Convention at Raleigh, on or about the 16th. of October, 1867.

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint ten delegates to represent Onslow county in the Convention—one from each Captain's district.

Ordered that the Secretary send a copy of these Resolutions to the Wilmington Journal and Raleigh Sentinel, with a request to publish the same.

A. J. JOHNSTON, Sec'y.

IMPORTANT PROPOSITION.

A STRONG ATTEMPT TO BE MADE BY CONGRESS TO HARMONIZE MATTERS WITH THE PRESIDENT ON THE SOUTHERN QUESTION.

An important proposition has just been started by influential Republicans which seems to meet with considerable favor, and may have a controlling influence upon the action of Congress at the approaching session and upon the next Presidential election. It is, that a Congressional Committee shall be appointed, by the consent of all Senators and Representatives who concur in the proposition, to wait upon President Johnson and request him to state definitely what plan he has to submit for the speedy reconstruction and admission of the Southern States, as he has hitherto opposed every policy that has been initiated by Congress. They presume that he has a definite practical plan of reconstruction in his own mind which he believes would be effective and which would meet his approval. They would then ascertain to a certainty whether there is any possibility of the legislative and executive branches of the government harmonizing on a policy that would restore the ex-rebel States to representation before the next Presidential election, or whether the country must remain in its present condition until those two branches shall be brought into accord by the decision of the ballot box in 1868. Attempts have before been made to patch up a compromise between the President and Congress, but they have been only individual volunteer efforts. The proposed movement contemplates the concurrence of a sufficient number of republicans to secure a majority of each house, should any agreement be possible, and the application to the President will be formal and authoritative. It originates with those who fear that impeachment may bring a destructive financial crisis upon the country, and is said to meet the approval of Senator Morgan, of New York, and other representatives of constituencies particularly concerned in the financial prosperity of the country. It would moreover form the nucleus of a new constitutional party all over the Union.

[We clip the foregoing from the Washington correspondence of the New York Herald, of the 8th., for what it is worth.

From the Statesville American.

CENTER SHOTS.

WILKESBORO, October 1, 1867.

Editors American:—I am a good Union man, and was highly delighted with the late Republican Convention that assembled in Raleigh. The negroes and yankees triumphed there, and laid Confiscation and Disfranchisement as the chief corner stones of the party in this State. In the meantime, until these things come, and I get my land, it has struck me that I might "turn an honest penny" by writing a sketch of the lives of the members of that Convention, as somebody has done for the Signers of the Declaration of Independence. I want information.

I am personally acquainted with the delegates of but two counties,—Wilkes and Watauga. Of those two delegations there was a man in each that had been whipped at the whipping post—one black and the other white.

Now, I should like to have information from the friends of delegates in every county, or from delegates themselves, who else among them has been whipped? when? where? what for? &c. The two delegates to whom I refer, one had been whipped for stealing and the other for passing counterfeit money.

There has been objection made to the designation of delegates as colored and white. Let me suggest, that, hereafter, they be made W. and N. W.—W. for whipped and N. W. for not whipped.

Friend Holden can be of great service to me in this matter, as he saw all the delegates, and I suppose slept with some of them, and can tell whether their backs were sore or not. Brother Holden, you needn't tell me how many have deserved whipping, for I know that.

WILLIAM H. SNEAD.

It is a noteworthy fact that two thirds of the Republican Nominating Conventions in the Connecticut Valley are to be held in the village churches.—New York Tribune, Sept. 28th.

Is it not written, "My house is the house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves!"—Chat. Union.

The celebrated English wit and bon vivant, fat Lord Alvanley, attending a dinner in the newly decorated saloon of a friend, where the table was scantily served with provender, when asked his opinion of the display, replied: "I should like less gilding, and a little more carving."

Friday Morning Dispatches.

THE ELECTIONS!

OHIO.

FIRST DISPATCH.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 10, M.

This morning's Commercial, (Radical,) says that "over 50 counties have been heard from, giving Thurman (Dem.) 6,000 majority. The remaining 25 or 30 counties to be heard from will reduce these figures, but whether sufficiently to elect Hayes, the official count only will show—The Legislature is hopelessly gone."

The Enquirer gives Thurman, the Democratic candidate for Governor, 2,169 majority.

The Legislature stands: House, Radicals 50, Democrats 56. Senate, Radicals 17; Democrats 19.

SECOND DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10, 3½ o'clock P. M.

A special from Columbus, Ohio, says that the returns still show Thurman's election.

Hon. S. S. Cox telegraphs the New York World, that the Democrats have SWEPT THE WHOLE STATE COMPLETELY.

THIRD DISPATCH.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 10, 4 P. M.

The returns show that Hayes is no doubt elected Governor by from one to two thousand majority. The Legislature is Democratic, by a small majority. Carroll, Hocking and Noble Counties are yet to hear from.

PENNSYLVANIA.

[FIRST DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10, M

The Ledger's table includes 50 Counties, showing 3,279 Democratic majority.

The 7 Counties to hear from gave, last year, only 548 Republican majority.

The Democrats gained nearly 1,000 votes in Lancaster,—Thad. Stevens' County.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10, P. M.

The Republican Central Committee claim the State by some 2,000 votes.

The Democratic Central Committee claim it by from 4,000 to 8,000.

THE ELECTION NEWS IN RICHMOND—MR. DAVIS' TRIAL.

RICHMOND, Oct. 10, P. M

Outside of the Republican party, the election news has been received with general pleasure, and the bulletin boards have been crowded all day. The colored people seem to be particularly dismayed at the fate of the amendment in Ohio.

The Government is making arrangements to have the trial evidence, and the arguments in the trial of Mr. Davis, reported by stenographers, for preservation in book form.

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINter Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 19 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.
Also, the largest and most varied stock of
CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS,
AND KENTUCKY JEANS
I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.
Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,
LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,
which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.
Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make, and others of equally high standing.
Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold many old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

DAILY SENTINEL.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1867.

A FABLE.

(From the Crisis.)

As the Eagle one morn from his eyrie on high
Looked down at the sun and the blue cloudless sky,
The crags overhead, and the mountain stream clear,
An owl's dismal hoot struck upon his quick ear.
He turned his gaze downward into the dark wood,
Where throughout the long day the poor "hoar-eyed" bird scowl;
What a pity it is, thought the eagle, to see
A bird so enslaved as the owl seems to be.
No doubt he could mount with me up to the sky,
And gaze at the sun, too, if he would but try;
I'll go and persuade him to leave the old tree
In the dark, gloomy forest, and soar up with me.
So the eagle swept gracefully down till he stood
On the bow of an oak, in the ridge of the wood,
Where the owl was still perched, and said, 'how do you do,
Brother owl? I'm the eagle and king of birds, too;
I dwell on the rock high above us you know,
And seldom descend from my eyrie so low,
Except to swoop down on some innocent prey,
In my talons to bear to my young ones away;
I'm the emblem of liberty, too, to the brave,
And sadly it grieves me to see you a slave;
Come soar up with me in the genial sunlight,
Your strength will increase with your freedom of flight;
Are you not a bird, and a brother of mine,
With wings, tail and feathers, as soft and as fine?
We surely are equals, for have you not heard,
"The Creator hath made of one flesh every bird?"
Then fly with me up to yon dazzling height,
And drink of the morning dew, sparkling and bright.
There we'll hear the lark's song as he mounts to the skies,
For sweetly he warbles as upward he flies,
And like the free birds you shall build a new nest,
High above the tall trees where the wild pigeons rest."
"Hoot, hoot," said the owl, "perhaps that I can,"
(For to think he was something he now first began,)
Then away they both started together and flew
Till the owl in despair exclaimed 'what shall I do?
My wing has given out, I can no further go;
I wish I had staid in the dark wood below;'
The eagle now passed in his heavenward track,
And taking the poor wearied owl on his back,
Darted off once again; but vainly he tries
To mount with his burden. He cannot now rise;
He falters, he staggers, beneath the huge weight.
By his folly, alas! he has sealed his own fate;
His powerful wing that had always before
Borne him proudly aloft was to bear him no more;
Never more would he gaze at the sun's golden light,
Nor his breast cleave the wind and the storm in their might.
He has made his last boast that the "king bird" is he,
The emblem of all that is great, good and free;
The lead from his back he would gladly now throw,
But his throat the owl seizes, and will not let go.
So their fates must be one, to his sorrow he found,
For he falls with the poor stupid owl to the ground.

BEAUTIFUL THOUGHT.—The same God who moulded the sun and kindled the stars, watches the flight of the insect. He who balances the clouds and hung the earth upon nothing notices the fall of the sparrow. He who gives Saturn his rings and places the moon like a ball of silver in the broad arch of heaven, gives the rose leaf a violet. And the same Being notices the praises of the cherubim and the prayers of the little children. These is but a breath of air and a beating of the heart betwixt this world and the next. And in the brief internal of awful suspense, while we feel that death is present with us, that the last pulsation here is but the prelude of endless life hereafter; we feel in the midst of the stunning calamity about to befall us, that earth has no compensating good to mitigate the severity of our losses. But there is no grief without some beneficent provision to soften its intenseness. When the good and the lovely die, the memory of their good deeds, like the moonbeams of the stormy sea, lights up our darkened hearts and lends to the surrounding gloom a beauty so sad, so sweet, that we would not, if we could, dispel the darkness that environs them.

HOW NEAR IS HEAVEN.—Christians sometimes look far away to heaven; but that rest is not far off. The clouds that hide their shining worlds are thin, they are transient, and soon will obscure no more, the journey may end this hour, one short step may place the Christian in a ray of light; but the morning comes and no shade behind it. Day, bright, peaceful and eternal, succeeds it. A pang may be left for a moment, and flies away forever. A conflict, sharp and painful, may continue for a night, but victory, eternal victory ensues. How soon oh! how soon the Christian's cares are over, his eyes suffused no more with tears. Near at hand is the land of his pursuit.—Hope cheers. How glorious the object that Hope embraces! How holy its spirit!—Who can contemplate the home that our heavenly Father is fitting for his children, and not feel in his soul a thirst for its enjoyment! Well these delights, the happy clime, those ever verdant plains, are not far distant.

ETERNAL LIFE.—We shall never die. The limitless expansion of eternity is before us. We have plenty of time, plenty of eternity. He that believeth doth not make haste. He is careful. He is working "for the forever," like the old artist in the times of Greece. What cannot be accomplished to-day by earnest, faithful toil, can be done to-morrow. Life's work in life, death's work in death, eternal work in eternity. "Wait God's leisure" is an old German saying. I say: "Wait the leisure of your own immortality." No true word can ever be a dead word. Whatsoever has anything of the divinity of truth in it may wrestle in Gethsemanes, and go down in blood on Calvaries, and be buried in sealed stone sepulchres; but for such such crucified and buried truth there cometh in its season an Eastern morn. Men may be groping for it in a tomb, but angels will say: "It is not here; it is risen."

It is SIMPLE, STRONG and COMPACT, and can be easily put together. We sold a large number last season and the demand is constantly increasing.

The following letter from Col. Hoon, of Surry County, speaks for itself:

* * * * It is with much pleasure that I state, your Gin Horse Power bought last season proved an entire success.

I applied a 13 feet lever and 6 feet band wheel to a 45 saw Gin, and one pair of ordinary mules which improved on constant work, and with slow gait of team gave sufficiency of speed; a capacity to gin about 4,000 per day.

The wear and tear in ginning 60 bales of cotton is not perceivable. do not think it could be estimated at 2 per cent. It was put up and geared by one of the best machinists in the State, who pronounced it superior to any patent he had seen; also, several gentlemen familiar by long use of gins, have examined it and decided to lay aside their old powers and order this pattern of you.

Yours, most respectfully, WM. H. HOOD.

PRICE, ONLY $65.

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

AND

NORTH CAROLINA

GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $266,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignors to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia, by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we run and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr. P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement, and MORE. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper.

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a Screw.

PETER E. SMITH,

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is a well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 14 feet; highest point of Lever, 18 or 19 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 7 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any state, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God." on which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE

Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular,
